

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, September 7

1999

Volunteers needed for Sept. 25 Community Service Day

The Fourth Annual Community Service Day will be Saturday, Sept. 25. Employees are encouraged to observe the day by volunteering time and skills to local non-profit agencies. Projects are scheduled with Technology Assistance for Special Consumers, Care Assurance for the Aging and Homebound, Christmas Charities, Habitat for Humanity and the Salvation Army. For information or to volunteer, call Rachel Kamenetzky at 544-1089.

AGA meets Sept.
16, 5:30 p.m., Marriott. For tickets, call 544-0099

HQ managers to brief Center on security issues Friday

Mark Borsiof of the NASA Security Management Office, and Lee Holcomb, NASA's chief information officer, will present a briefing on personnel, physical and information technology security Friday from 9-11 a.m. in Morris Auditorium. For more information, call Steve Jones at 544-4373.

Marshall early out buyout authority extended through
Sept. 30, 2000.
Call 544-8115

Marshall Safety Awareness Day
kickoff, Oct. 20,
8:30 a.m., Morris
Auditorium